WHO CAN I REFER?

Adults (18+) presenting with concerns such as:

- Anxiety and excessive worry
- Depression or persistent low mood
- Stress and burnout
- Trauma and difficult life experiences
- Substance use or addiction concerns
- Anger or emotional regulation difficulties
- Relationship or family stress
- Major life transitions
- Work or caregiver stress
- Difficulty coping with significant health or life changes

WHEN A REFERRAL MAY HELP

Consider a behavioral health referral when emotional, behavioral, or substance-related concerns are affecting a patient's:

- Daily functioning
- Relationships
- Sleep
- Work
- Stress management
- Substance use
- Treatment follow-through
- Overall quality of life

Behavioral health support can help patients address emotional and behavioral barriers that may affect functioning, coping, and overall health.

SERVICES AVAILABLE
